

We hired Troy for our bathroom renovations. We did all three bathrooms in our home. Troy was professional, concise and trustworthy. His transparency left for no surprises and he made sure to source out the best quality for the best cost. It was really nice having someone we could fully rely on to get the job done start to finish and make sure that the end result was exactly what we wanted. We would strongly recommend Clearwater Homes for all your construction needs and wishes.